MILLIONS STRIVING TO SHAPE OUR CONDUCT

WORKING TO SECURE SUCH LEGISLATION

A HALF MILLION PEOPLE BELONG TO THE W. C. T. U. ASSOCIATION

ON THE OTHER HAND 650,000 PEOPLE ARE IN A GROUP OPPOSING DRY AMENDMENT

(By United Press)
New York, March 26.—More than 2,000,000 people in the United States are banded into organizations working for passage of legislation bearing on personal conduct.

A half million of these belong to the W. C. T. U.

On the other side 650,000 are members of the association against the prohibition amendment.

The others belong to the smaller organizations—many of which are local—such as the Anti-Tobacco League, the Lord's Day Alliance, which works for Sunday closing laws, the International Reform Association, etc.

In addition, unknown thousands contribute to the Anti-Saloon League which has no membership rolls and which is supported by collections at public meetings, contributions and by donations from churches.

Eight of these organizations at least are of national scope and seven maintain headquarters in the nation's capital.

The national organizations of major importance are:
The W. C. T. U.,
The Association against the Prohibition Amendment,
The Anti-Saloon League,
The Anti-Suffrage Association,
The Lord's Day Alliance,
The National Temperance Bureau,
The International Reform Association, and The Anti-Tobacco Alliance.

The W. C. T. U., the Anti-Saloon League and the National Association against the prohibition amendment appear to be the most far-reaching. They operate in practically every state in the union.

In addition to these three which are active throughout the nation, the Anti-Tobacco League or some local organization with its sympathy reaches most of the country east of the Rocky Mountains. In many states, local organizations are exceedingly active working for various phases of personal conduct control.

BURIED BABY, THOUGHT HIS LITTLE ONE

JERRY SULLIVAN, A CYCLONE REFUGEE, THEN RECOVERS LOST BABY

VOLUNTEER WORKERS ASKED TO CLEAN UP DEBRIS IN WEST FRANKFORT

(By United Press)
West Frankfort, Ill., March 26.—Jerry Sullivan, a survivor of last week's cyclone today has his two-year-old baby in a make-shift home after going through funeral services Monday for a baby he had identified as his son.

After the funeral services Sullivan was informed that a baby which looked like his was at the home of J. K. Whittaker. Late yesterday Sullivan identified the boy at the Whittaker home.

Sullivan's wife and a daughter are in a hospital while another son was killed in the cyclone.

Mayor Bagley today sent an appeal to all the surrounding country for volunteer workmen with tools to help clean up the disaster area. More than a hundred appeared today and started to work.

COUNT KAROLYI ASKS THAT ALL POMP BE OMITTED

(By United Press)
New York, March 26.—Count Michael Karolyi, former president of Hungary, has requested his friends not to stage a farewell parade when he and his wife leave for Canada April 5.

This announcement was made by his attorney, Morris L. Ernst, who said:

"The count was afraid that the state department might hold him responsible for political activity if his followers paraded."

LAND OF DEEP BLUE WATER HAS SOME BLUE LAWS

MINNESOTA BANS DANCING TO SELLING SARDINES ON SUNDAY

ONE MAY NOT EVEN MOW THE LAWN IF ONE KEEPS WITHIN SUNDAY LAW

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 26.—Minnesota—land of the deep blue water—has the bluest blue laws in the land.

From dancing in public to selling sardines—everything but churchgoing and motoring, is banned on Sunday, and motoring is taboo if the motor is noisy. One may not even mow the lawn on Sunday if one keeps within the law. Sunday movies and all sports, except solemn baseball are prohibited by the blue law—but few of them are curved. Legislators now in session hope to get time to amend some of the blue laws and leave only those which are in force. An attempt to permit grocery stores to remain open on Sundays failed yesterday. The bill was killed in the committee.

Most people in Minnesota go fishing on Sunday, but the law forbids catching them.

Baseball players observe one law at least—and end the game at six o'clock on Sunday even if the score is tied with the games full and no outs in the ninth.

BARITONE WINS PAY WITH ITALIAN ARIA HE SINGS IN COURT

Chicago, March 26.—The bleak and gloomy walls of a municipal court, long accustomed to the wails of the injured and oppressed, the rasping voices of wrangling attorneys and the sharp tones of a stern judge, echoed to something different when William Beck voiced his plea to the court.

Beck, one of the "heavy" baritones formerly with the Chicago Opera Co., appeared to show Judge Mathew Hartigan that his voice was worth $200 a concert.

As evidence, he stepped back from the bench rail and burst forth with an aria from "Pagliacci." The evidence won the case.

The court ordered Henry Gross, a promoter, to pay Beck the $200.

NAVAL LIEUTENANT WILL RESIGN SOON

WAS CENTRAL FIGURE OF AN INVESTIGATION CHARGING INSANITY

(By United Press)
Cleveland, O., March 26.—Lieutenant Kennedy, U. S. Navy will resign from the Navy he said here today. The naval lieutenant who was granted a furlough as a result of his wife's two month's fight to rescue him from a California state hospital where he had been committed on a charge of insanity by high naval officials, is visiting relatives here. Lieutenant Kennedy refused to give any reason for his intention to resign. He declared he could not talk about his troubles.

SHEPHERD IS ASSIGNED TO CELL IN JAIL

DEFEATED IN HIS FIRST SKIRMISH MADE FOR FREE DOM

PROSECUTION TERMS HIM "COLD-BLOODED, DASTARDLY MURDERER"

(By United Press)
Chicago, March 26.—Defeated in his first skirmish for freedom and termed a "cold-blooded dastardly murderer" by the prosecution, William Shepherd today was assigned to a cell in the county jail where he must remain pending his trial by a jury.

Shepherd accused of murdering his foster-son, Billy McClintock by inoculating him with typhoid fever germs so that he might inherit the boy's million dollar estate, took his defeat with an utter absence of dejection.

"Well, boys, I lost out. I guess I will be with you a long time," he said to the jail birds as he returned from the court hearing to his cell in the custody of two guards.

ASK TO EXHUME 2 MORE BODIES

Chicago, March 26.—A petition asking for an order to exhume the bodies of Dr. Oscar Olson and Mrs. Emma McClintock was prepared today by the state's attorney's office in hunting for further evidence against William D. Shepherd, charged with killing his ward, Billy McClintock.

Dr. Olson, for many years a friend of the McClintock family, died three years ago. Mrs. McClintock, mother of Billy, died 16 years ago.

John Scabara, assistant state's attorney, announced he would present the petition some time today to one of the criminal court judges. Chief Justice Harry Olson of the municipal court, investigating the case against Shepherd, held the doctor, his brother, died from other than natural causes. At the coroner's inquest into Billy's death, he declared Dr. Olson died shortly after having been some fruit by Shepherd.

WOMAN REMOVES PAUPERISM STIGMA BY TINY BEQUEST

Middleton, Conn., March 26.—Mrs. Ellie Carroll, wife of a rubber factory worker of Middleton, sacrificed $38.50 of a pitiful $50 legacy to erase a 30-year old stain of pauperism from her family's name.

Clutching her legacy check tightly, Mrs. Carroll, a workworn little woman, appeared before Town Clerk Charles S. Bynon.

"Back in 1895," she said, "father turned up missing, and because we were poor my mother had to ask the town for alms. It was a cold winter and the family was hungry before she asked. Altogether she had $38.50 from the town. I want to pay it back with interest."

Clerk Bynon showed his surprise. He explained that it wasn't necessary, or even customary to repay alms. But she insisted, assuring him she always had intended to repay the debt. The opportunity had come only when a distant relative remembered her in his will.

"I always intended to pay up," said Mrs. Carroll proudly. "Now no one can say the Kilmartins were paupers."

Mr. Bynon finally agreed to accept $38.50, telling the woman, however, that the accrued interest would bring the sum to triple the size of her check.

"Weren't you tempted to buy a new dress, or a radio set, or something you've had your heart set on?" asked Mr. Bynon as he gave Mrs. Carroll her change.

"No," she replied simply, "I just couldn't rest until the stain was gone."

GOVERNMENT IN LAST BROADSIDE TO ANNUL LEASE

(By United Press)
Cheyenne, Wyo., March 26.—The government was scheduled to fire its last broadside today in its attempt to annul the Teapot Dome lease granted the Mammoth Oil company by former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall. Owen J. Roberts, government counsel, opened with rebuttal arguments directed against the brilliant summing up of defense attorneys. The Mammoth company rested its case late yesterday after Martin W. Littleton had spoken for slightly more than an hour.

ANNULMENT SUIT UNDER ADVISEMENT

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 26.—Federal Judge T. B. Kennedy today took the Teapot Dome annulment suit under advisement. He indicated he would not give a decision for three months. Government authorities were given 15 days to file briefs and attorneys for Harry F. Sinclair, defending the lease granted the Mammoth Oil company by former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, were given 30 days. After that time has elapsed Judge Kennedy indicated he would begin work on his decision.

ROGERS TELLS THE POLICE HE WAS SHOT BY MOSE BARNETT

CHARGED WITH ALLEGED COMPLICITY IN MILWAUKEE BANK ROBBERY

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, March 26.—John LeRoy Rogers told police today that he was shot by "Big Mose" Barnett, Minneapolis saloonkeeper and friend of Jack Davenport, who is fighting extradition to Milwaukee for alleged complicity in the $300,000 Northwestern National Bank robbery last December.

Rogers is said to be the man who tipped the police off and lead them to arrest Davenport.

Rogers, an ex-convict, gunman and figure in Minneapolis' underworld, was shot down in a loop gun battle last night. He was wounded three times and is in a serious condition.

Witnesses said Rogers was pursued by his assailant who grabbed him by the coat collar, turned him around and fired three shots in his head. Reeling from his wounds, Rogers fired two shots at his assailant as he fled.

In St. Paul reports were undenied at the county attorney's office that Rogers was to have been called today as a possible witness in the second trial of Ben and Abe Gleeman for the murder of Bert Stevens. The first Gleeman jury disagreed.

Police are working on the theory that Rogers was shot by friends of Davenport, but they are also investigating the possibility that the shooting was to eliminate him as a witness in the Gleeman case.

POSSES LAY SIEGE TO FOUR P. O. BANDITS

(By United Press)
Steuersville, O., March 26.—Posses today laid siege to the Bretzell coal mine near Mingo where four postoffice bandits took refuge after wounding Joseph Boom, a dry agent.

Thinking the bandits were rum runners, Boom followed their flight from Glen Robin where they had looted the postoffice. A gun battle followed and Boom was wounded. The bandit car carried a Pennsylvania license.

GIRL CHARGED WITH MURDER, COLLAPSED

PHYSICIANS EXAMINED DEFENDANT WILL REPORT ON HER CONDITION

(By United Press)
San Francisco, March 26.—Physicians examined Dorothy Ellingson, 16-year-old San Francisco girl, accused of killing her mother, last night to determine whether it is possible for her trial to continue.

She collapsed for the fourth time in three days during yesterday's court session, causing doubt as to whether she can stand the ordeal ahead of her. The physicians will report to Dorothy's attorneys before today's session begins and on their report will be based the decision as to whether a continuance should be asked.

The prosecution has made no formal comment on Dorothy's breakdown, but has refused to be greatly concerned about it. However, should physicians report Dorothy unable to go on with the trial, it is believed a continuance would not be opposed.

The girl's lawyers indicated they had abandoned any plan of putting Dorothy on the witness stand in her own defense, believing that although she might be able to stand the strain of the trial, she never would be able to go through the ordeal of examination as witness.

This decision means the defense will rely almost entirely on a plea of "jazz-mania" in its efforts to free Dorothy.

Dorothy's wish to be tried before a jury of men still has a chance for realization. Only two women are among those temporarily passed and her defense has sufficient challenges left to remove them and still be fortified against additional women being drawn.

SAYS HER BRAIN CANNOT STAND IT ALL

San Francisco, March 26.—Her face a shade paler and her steps dragging, Dorothy Ellingson, 16-year-old mother slayer, today faced the fourth day of her trial determined to see it through. The slender titian-haired jazz girl with a spirit which made her the queen of cabarets, entirely subdued, left her cell in Inglewood jail and wearily entered the court room of Judge Harold Louderback.

"It's terribly foolish of me breaking down as I have done," Dorothy said, referring to her collapses since the trial started. "My brain does not seem to be able to stand it all. Oh, if they would only hurry."

SOO LINE ASKS PERMIT TO ISSUE BONDS FOR ORE CARS

Washington, March 26.—Authority to issue $400,000 of 5 per cent equipment trust certificates was requested from the Interstate Commerce commission today by the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie railroad. The certificates will be used in the purchase of 250 ore cars costing $574,000.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT AGENT RESIGNS

Detroit, Mich., March 26.—Henry A. Dykeman has sent in his resignation as director of the federal prohibition enforcement in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, it became known today. While it is understood Dykeman's official resignation gave "business reasons" as the cause for quitting, an emphatic statement given here early this week that he was "disgusted with the manner in which the prohibition law is enforced" expressed his attitude clearly, friends said.

A. H. LINDEKE'S SKULL FRACTURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 26.—A. H. Lindeke, prominent business man, was still in a serious condition today from injuries sustained when he was struck by an automobile near his Summit avenue home last night. Dr. H. B. Zimmerman, attending him at Miller's hospital, said his skull was fractured. The injury is considered "extremely serious," he said, although the patient's condition is not critical. Lindeke is a member of the firm of Lindeke, Warner & Sons. He is 81 years old.

BILL PROVIDES STATE POLICE FORCE OF 500

INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE BY SENATOR FRANK STEPHENS

NOT AVAILABLE FOR STRIKE EXCEPT ON ORDER OF GOVERNOR

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 26.—A bill providing for a state police force was introduced in the senate by Senator Frank Stephens of Minneapolis.

The force would consist of between 300 and 500 men under the present plan. There would be from five to seven companies, each under a captain and minor officers, and the whole force to be under the superintendent with offices in the capitol. The force would patrol the rural districts, cooperating with local police authorities and help suppress riots. A detail of the state police would be sent out at the request of the governor, attorney general or any sheriff or mayor.

State police, however, would not be available for strike duty except upon special order from the governor. Requests for strike police from any mayor or sheriff would have to be approved by the executive office. There is no appropriation for maintenance of the police provided in the present bill.

The board would consist of a superintendent appointed by the governor, an assistant superintendent and from five to seven companies. The companies would include a captain, two lieutenants, four sergeants, eight corporals and 50 privates. The superintendent would appoint all other members of the force and fix their salaries. His salary would be $5,000 a year. The bill was referred to the committee on general legislation.

FINAL DISPOSITION OF DENNISTOUN CASE

(By United Press)
London, March 26.—Final disposition of the legal battle between Mrs. Dorothy Muriel Dennistoun and her former husband remains solely with Judge McCordie. Opposing counsel completed their arguments this morning and the judge announced he would make his decision soon.

HOPI INDIAN GUIDE IN SUIT

NAMED AS CO-RESPONDENT IN MILLIONAIRE'S DIVORCE ACTION

(By United Press)
Brooklyn, N. Y., March 26.—Joe Secacacuka, Hopi Indian guide, is named as co-respondent in a divorce action brought today by Clifford Hendricks, millionaire sportsman, against Mrs. Ida Mae Hendricks, whom he married in Kenmore, N. Y., in 1920.

Sensational charges similar to those of the Stillman case are made by Hendricks in the complaint he has filed with the Supreme Court.

HOUSE OF THE LEGISLATURE IN ACTION TODAY

WERE AMONG FINAL SIX MEASURES AWAITING DISPOSITION

THOSE REMAINING ARE APPROPRIATION BILLS, HIGHWAY DEPT. FINANCING

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 25.—Bills levying a 2c gasoline tax and reducing present automobile tax 16 2-3 per cent were passed by the house of the legislature today.

These were among the final six measures awaiting action in the house, those remaining being appropriation bills, financing of the state highway department and reorganization of the state government.

Various amendments were offered to both the gasoline and automobile tax reduction bills, but committees reporting them had sufficient support to back up their recommendation.

Efforts were made to increase the gasoline tax from 2c to 2½c a gallon, but the view of the house was that 2c would be sufficient at this time. Estimates are that this will add $4,000,000 a year to the state highway fund.

Under a new program which means the disbursing of the bond proposal method for refinancing the highway department, a 2½c gasoline tax would be levied next year and then a cut or increase in the future rates left to the 1927 legislature.

Various details of this program still have to be worked out. It also includes a proposition of using part of the highway sinking fund during years when small amount of county reimbursement bonds come due for construction and maintenance work, and then putting the money back in the year.

The gasoline tax measure still must be voted on in the senate. Plans are to have it go into effect July 1st, of this year. The tax reduction bill will not go into effect until next year as automobile taxes for this year have been paid, and it is not practicable to make refunds.

Backers of the administration bill to reorganize the state government won a victory late yesterday before the house committee on similar administration when it was decided to introduce the bill with various amendments to which there is no opposition not later than Saturday in the house and have it made a special order the early part of next week.

"ROARING LION" OF TRIBE OF JUDAH IS INVESTIGATED

WEIRD RITES AND STRANGE HAPPENINGS IN CALIFORNIA RANCH HOME

GRAND JURY PROBING DEATH OF NORMAN SCHALOW OF OROVILLE

(By United Press)
Oroville, Cal., March 26.—Additional details of weird rites and strange happenings in the ranch home of Anna Rhodes, self-styled "roaring lion" of the tribe of Judah were expected today while the grand jury investigated the death of Norman Schalow.

Schalow died from burns on his arms, feet and body inflicted Mrs. Rhodes told prosecuting attorney William G. Rothe, to "drive away the devil." The burning was done in the form of a cross.

Mrs. Rhodes' story, according to Rothe, conflicts with that of her husband who said that Schalow was a member of the fiery cult and that he was burned by Mrs. Rhodes. Mrs. Rhodes declined to tell how she "purified" her brother.

Cleveland, O., March 26.—Lieutenant Kennedy, U. S. Navy will resign from the Navy he said here today. The naval lieutenant who was granted a furlough as a result of his wife's two month's fight to rescue him from a California state hospital where he had been committed on a charge of insanity by high naval officials, is visiting relatives here. Lieutenant Kennedy refused to give any reason for his intention to resign. He declared he could not talk about his troubles.

SHEPHERD IS ASSIGNED TO CELL IN JAIL

DEFEATED IN HIS FIRST SKIRMISH MADE FOR FREEDOM

PROSECUTION TERMS HIM "COLD-BLOODED, DASTARDLY MURDERER"

(By United Press)

Chicago, March 26.—Defeated in his first skirmish for freedom and termed a "cold-blooded dastardly murderer" by the prosecution, William Shepherd today was assigned to a cell in the county jail where he must remain pending his trial by a jury. Shepherd accused of murdering his foster-son, Billy McClintock by inoculating him with typhoid fever germs so that he might inherit the boy's million dollar estate, took his defeat with an utter absence of dejection.

ASK TO EXHUME
2 MORE BODIES

Chicago, March 26.—A petition asking for an order to exhume the bodies of Dr. Oscar Olson and Mrs. Emma McClintock was prepared today by the state's attorney's office in hunting for further evidence against William D. Shepherd, charged with killing his ward, Billy McClintock.

Dr. Olson, for many years a friend of the McClintock family, died three years ago. Mrs. McClintock, mother of Billy, died 16 years ago.

John Scabara, assistant state's attorney, announced he would present the petition some time today to one of the criminal court judges. Chief Justice Harry Olson of the municipal court, investigating the case against Shepherd, held the doctor, his brother, died from other than natural causes. At the coroner's inquest into Billy's death, he declared Dr. Olson died shortly after having been some fruit by Shepherd.

The Mammoth company rested its case late yesterday after Martin W. Littleton had spoken for slightly more than an hour.

ANNULMENT SUIT UNDER ADVISEMENT

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 26.—Federal Judge T. B. Kennedy today took the Teapot Dome annulment suit under advisement. He indicated he would not give a decision for three months.

Government authorities were given 15 days to file briefs and attorneys for Harry F. Sinclair, defending the lease granted the Mammoth Oil company by former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, were given 30 days. After that time has elapsed Judge Kennedy indicated he would begin work on his decision.

GIRL CHARGED WITH MURDER, COLLAPSED

PHYSICIANS EXAMINED DEFENDANT WILL REPORT ON HER CONDITION

(By United Press)

San Francisco, March 26.—Physicians examined Dorothy Ellingson, 16-year-old San Francisco girl, accused of killing her mother, last night to determine whether it is possible for her trial to continue.

She collapsed for the fourth time in three days during yesterday's court session, causing doubt as to whether she can stand the ordeal ahead of her. The physicians will report to Dorothy's attorneys before today's session begins and on their report will be based the decision as to whether a continuance should be asked.

This decision means the defense will rely almost entirely on a plea of "jazz-mania" in its efforts to free Dorothy.

Dorothy's wish to be tried before a jury of men still has a chance for realization. Only two women are among those temporarily passed and her defense has sufficient challenges left to remove them and still be fortified against additional women being drawn.

SAYS HER BRAIN CANNOT STAND IT ALL

San Francisco, March 26.—Her face a shade paler and her steps dragging, Dorothy Ellingson, 16-year-old mother slayer, today faced the fourth day of her trial determined to see it through. The slender, titian-haired jazz girl with a spirit which made her the queen of cabarets, entirely subdued, left her cell in Ingleswood jail and wearily entered the court room of Judge Harold Louderback.

"It's terribly foolish of me breaking down as I have done," Dorothy said, referring to her collapses since the trial started. "My brain does not seem to be able to stand it all. Oh, if they would only hurry."

Washington, March 26.—Authority to issue $400,000 of 5 per cent equipment trust certificates was requested from the Interstate Commerce commission today by the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie railroad. The certificates will be used in the purchase of 250 ore cars costing $574,000.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT AGENT RESIGNS

Detroit, Mich., March 26.—Henry A. Dykeman has sent in his resignation as director of the federal prohibition enforcement in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, it became known today. While it is understood Dykeman's official resignation gave "business reasons" as the cause for quitting, an emphatic statement given here early this week that he was "disgusted with the manner in which the prohibition law is enforced" expressed his attitude clearly, friends said.

A. H. LINDEKE'S SKULL FRACTURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 26.—A. H. Lindeke, prominent business man, was still in a serious condition today from injuries sustained when he was struck by an automobile near his Summit avenue home last night. Dr. H. B. Zimmerman, attending him at Miller's hospital, said his skull was fractured. The injury is considered "extremely serious," he said, although the patient's condition is not critical. Lindeke is a member of the firm of Lindeke, Warner & Sons. He is 81 years old.

BILL PROVIDES STATE POLICE FORCE OF 500

NOT AVAILABLE FOR STRIKE EXCEPT ON ORDER OF GOVERNOR

(By United Press)
St. Paul, March 26.—A bill providing for a state police force was introduced in the senate by Senator Frank Stephens of Minneapolis.

The force would consist of between 300 and 500 men under the present plan. There would be from five to seven companies, each under a captain and minor officers, and the whole force to be under the superintendent with offices in the capitol. The force would patrol the rural districts, co-operating with local police authorities and help suppress riots. A detail of the state police would be sent out at the request of the governor, attorney general or any sheriff or mayor.

State police, however, would not be available for strike duty except upon special order from the governor. Requests for strike police from any mayor or sheriff would have to be approved by the executive office. There is no appropriation for maintenance of the police provided in the present bill.

The board would consist of a superintendent appointed by the governor, an assistant superintendent and from five to seven companies. The companies would include a captain, two lieutenants, four sergeants, eight corporals and 50 privates. The superintendent would appoint all other members of the force and fix their salaries. His salary would be $5,000 a year. The bill was referred to the committee on general legislation.

FINAL DISPOSITION OF DENNISTOUN CASE

(By United Press)
London, March 26.—Final disposition of the legal battle between Mrs. Dorothy Muriel Dennistoun and her former husband remains solely with Judge McCauley. Opposing counsel completed their arguments this morning and the judge announced he would make his decision soon.

HOPKI INDIAN GUIDE IN SUIT

NAMED AS CO-RESPONDENT IN MILLIONAIRE'S DIVORCE ACTION

(By United Press)
Brooklyn, N. Y., March 26.—Joe Secacakuka, Hopki Indian guide, is named as co-respondent in a divorce action brought today by Clifford Hendricks, millionaire sportsman, against Mrs. Ida Mae Hendricks, whom he married in Kenmore, N. Y., in 1920.

Sensational charges similar to those of the Stillman case are made by Hendricks in the complaint he has filed with the Supreme Court.

HOUSE OF THE LEGISLATURE IN ACTION TODAY

WERE AMONG FINAL SIX MEASURES AWAITING DISPOSITION

THOSE REMAINING ARE APPROPRIATION BILLS, HIGHWAY DEPT. FINANCING

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 26.—Bills levying a 2c gasoline tax and reducing present automobile tax 16 2-3 per cent were passed by the house of the legislature today.

These were among the final six measures awaiting action in the house, those remaining being appropriation bills, financing of the state highway department and reorganization of the state government.

Various amendments were offered to both the gasoline and automobile tax reduction bills, but committees reporting them had sufficient support to back up their recommendation.

Efforts were made to increase the gasoline tax from 2c to 2½c a gallon, but the view of the house was that 2c would be sufficient at this time. Estimates are that this will add $4,000,000 a year to the state highway fund.

Under a new program which means the disbursing of the bond proposal method for refinancing the highway department, a 2½c gasoline tax would be levied next year and then a cut or increase in the future rates left to the 1927 legislature.

Various details of this program still have to be worked out. It also includes a proposition of using part of the highway sinking fund during years when small amount of county reimbursement bonds come due for construction and maintenance work, and then putting the money back in other years.

The gasoline tax measure still must be voted on in the senate. Plans are to have it go into effect July 1st, of this year. The tax reduction bill will not go into effect until next year as automobile taxes for this year have been paid, and it is not practicable to make refunds.

Backers of the administration bill to reorganize the state government won a victory late yesterday before the house committee on similar administration when it was decided to introduce the bill with various amendments to which there is no opposition not later than Saturday in the house and have it made a special order the early part of next week.

"ROARING LION" OF TRIBE OF JUDAH IS INVESTIGATED

WEIRD RITES AND STRANGE HAPPENINGS IN CALIFORNIA RANCH HOME

GRAND JURY PROBING DEATH OF NORMAN SCHALOW OF OROVILLE

(By United Press)
Oroville, Cal., March 26.—Additional details of weird rites and strange happenings in the ranch home of Anna Rhodes, self-styled "roaring lion" of the tribe of Judah were expected today while the grand jury investigated the death of Norman Schalow.

Schalow died from burns on his arms, feet and body inflicted Mrs. Rhodes told prosecuting attorney William G. Rothe, to "drive away the devil." The burning was done in the form of a cross.

Mrs. Rhodes' story, according to Rothe, conflicts with that of her husband who said that Schalow was a member of the fiery cult and that he was burned by Mrs. Rhodes. Mrs. Rhodes declined to tell how she "purified" her brother.

WHAT MAKES SEED GROW

Each tiny seed is a little factory in itself wherein various processes go on busily and when completed the seed is ready to function. Once completed, the seed must be sown or it loses its vitality. In each live seed these processes go on even when stored in bins and granaries.

One of the active agents in this work inside the seed is known as an enzyme, a sort of ferment which changes the starchy stored food into sugar. This activity tends toward lowering the vitality of the seed. Then, too, the vitality of seed is largely dependent upon the harvesting. If seed is harvested before it is completely ripened, its vitality is lower than if it is ripe. Seed harvested in wet weather is believed to be of lower vitality than that harvested in dry weather.

There is a large percentage of loss to the seedman in grain weeds whose period of vitality is short and which does not last over one season. If he cannot sell it, he must face the loss and fresh seed must be secured each year as old seed soon tells its tale in lack of germination when sown. Some seed has much longer life than others, some being better in germinating quality the second year than the first.

Grain seeds which lose their vitality comparatively quickly are corn, wheat, rye, oats and blue grass. They must be sold or the seedman must carry a loss. He must work on a close margin with these seeds.

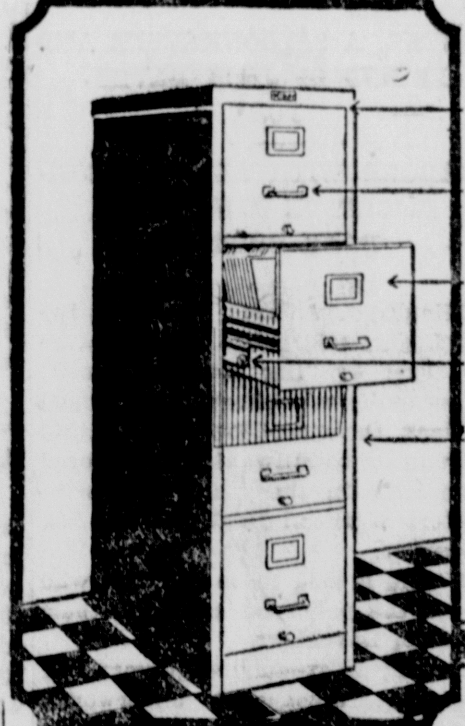

Clover and alfalfa are long lived seeds. Clover seed has been known to germinate after 35 years of burial in the earth. However, the story of seeds from tombs of the ancient Pharaohs germinating are declared fakes by scientists who have investigated. No seed lives for centuries. It would be welcome news to seedmen if this were true.

Storehouses for seeds are kept at a fairly even temperature for the best preservation of the vitality.

WHAT MAKES SEED GROW

Each tiny seed is a little factory in itself wherein various processes go on busily and when completed the seed is ready to function. Once completed, the seed must be sown or it loses its vitality. In each live seed these processes go on even when stored in bins and granaries.

One of the active agents in this work inside the seed is known as an enzyme, a sort of ferment which changes the starchy stored food into sugar. This activity tends toward lowering the vitality of the seed. Then, too, the vitality of seed is largely dependent upon the harvesting. If seed is harvested before it is completely ripened, its vitality is lower than if it is ripe. Seed harvested in wet weather is believed to be of lower vitality than that harvested in dry weather.

There is a large percentage of loss to the seedman in grain seeds whose period of vitality is short and which does not last over one season. If he cannot sell it, he must face the loss and fresh seed must be secured each year as old seed soon tells its tale in lack of germination when sown. Some seed has much longer life than others, some being better in germinating quality the second year than the first.

Grain seeds which lose their vitality comparatively quickly are corn, wheat, rye, oats and blue grass. They must be sold or the seedman must carry a loss. He must work on a close margin with these seeds.

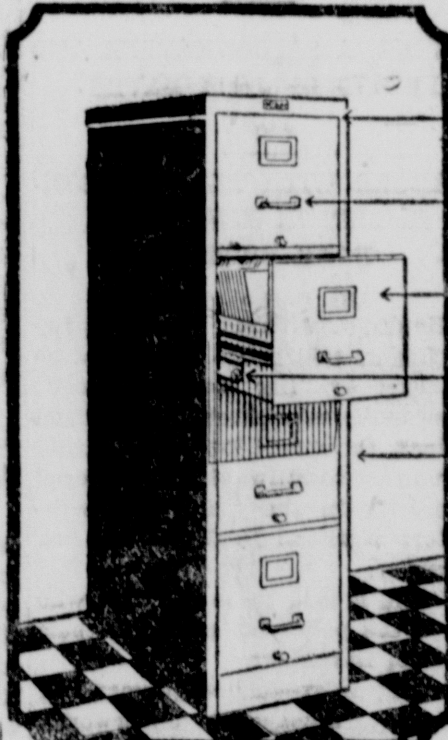

Clover and alfalfa are long lived seeds. Clover seed has been known to germinate after 35 years of burial in the earth. However, the story of seeds from tombs of the ancient Pharaohs germinating are declared fakes by scientists who have investigated. No seed lives for centuries. It would be welcome news to seedsmen if this were true.

Storehouses for seeds are kept at a fairly even temperature for the best preservation of the vitality.

GLADIOLI CAMPAIGN NOW ON IN EARNEST

First Day of Selling Showed Most Excellent Results Achieved

COMMITTEES ON TOES

Spirit of Cooperation Displayed Shows Average Citizen is Very Public Spirited

The first day of the gladioli selling showed most excellent results. If the committees are able to see the people a greater number will be sold than was expected would be sold. The spirit of cooperation being shown is revealing the fact that the average citizen is very public spirited and anxious to improve his city.

It has been suggested that the fall flower show be held at the same time that the Elks convention is held, that the quality of flowers grown in Brainerd may be made known all over the state. With this suggestion came another that since gladioli will bloom at Elks convention time why should not every Elks who possibly can, grow a bed of gladioli first for decorating the city at that time and then to decorate the social hall during the convention.

It would be easily possible to use from three to five thousand blooms in decorating a hall and the effect would be such as to make the Brainerd convention most distinctive.

It is urged that those wishing gladioli do not wait until the solicitors call. They may not get around to all. Give your order to the one nearest to you and include your money for this is a cash with order sale.

The following are accepting orders:

1st ward—Mrs. Louis Hohman Sr., chairman; Mrs. Louis Hohman Jr., Mrs. Albert Fox, Mrs. C. B. Rowley.

2nd ward—Mrs. Mable Carmichael, chairman; Mrs. W. C. Mannis; Chas. Mahlum, Christian Bruhn.

3rd ward—Mrs. J. H. Herbert, Mrs. F. M. Kelley, Mrs. W. Hall, Mrs. Mary Lasher, B. Kaatz & Son.

4th ward—C. H. Lawson, chairman; Mrs. F. C. Alexander, Mrs. Aaron Johnson, Laurel street; Scandinavian Co-operative Mercantile Co., Maple street; Mrs. J. C. Hammett, Mrs. Hilda Johnson, Norwood street; Johnson Bros., Oak and Quince streets; Mrs. C. E. Peterson, Mrs. Robert Falconer, Pine street; C. H. Anderson, Emil Schon, Rosewood street.

DESOLATION AND HORROR

Dead And Dying Everywhere Where Tornado Hit in Section of Illinois

S. S. Shaver, executive of the Crow Wing Boy Scout council, has received a marked copy of the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, Leader, telling of his brother's part in relief work throughout the storm stricken area in southern Illinois. This account gives several incidents that have not been published before, and which are given herewith:

"The desolation and horror here (West Frankfort, Ill.) from Wednesday's tornado were described by Waldo Shaver, executive secretary of the disaster relief commission which he organized to care for the approximately 300 injured and 700 homeless.

"Shaver, who went to West Frankfort from Eau Claire, Wisconsin, some ten months ago to organize the Coal Belt Boy Scout council, comprising troops in eight Franklin and Williamson county towns, was dictating a letter in his office in the Masonic building when the tornado struck the northwest portion of the building.

"Upon hearing that 250 children had been killed at the Joiner school, he rushed to the scene with three doctors having offices in his building.

He found that only one child had been killed at the school, but before him he saw an appalling scene of desolation. Houses as far as the eye could see were wrecked or had been blown away. Dead and dying were lying about on every hand. Men, women and children were rushing about, many bleeding and in tattered clothing. One young girl, Shaver said, was running down the street, frantically endeavoring to pull out a stick the size of a pencil, which had been driven into her skull.

"Shaver and the three physicians immediately set up first aid stations in the wrecks of homes. Twenty coal miners were hastily assembled and began a search for the dead and injured.

"Volunteer workers in large numbers soon arrived and the work of taking the victims to hospitals and morgues began. After a few hours Shaver realized an organization and outside help were needed, and he summoned members of the Boy Scout council from nearby towns and the disaster relief commission, with distinct units to care for the several phases of the work.

"When Red Cross representatives arrived on the scene, they found the relief work going forward so smoothly that the commission was asked to continue, while the Red Cross concentrated efforts at Murphysboro and other hard hit towns.

"To Shaver, citizens freely gave credit tonight for organizing the workers. He is a graduate of Wisconsin and Columbia universities, and has had newspaper experience. "He was associated with Y. M. C. A. work in Eau Claire and later in the same movement in Hawaii, then in Hartford, Conn., before entering Boy Scout work."

Banking for the People

A Bank's Favored Customers

A MAN needs no pull, no "influence" other than that of his own personality and character to induce his banker to listen to him and give him banking aid. He merits this attention if he is making a sincere effort to play the game of business in an upright, intelligent way.

He is, distinctly, a favored customer of his bank.

It is the simplest manifestation of far-seeing wisdom for a banker to be constantly on the lookout for material to develop into substantial successes.

For a bank's profitable customers are its successful ones,—those who are prompted by high ideals of honor and industry.

In this country the lowly worker is often transformed, through his own effort, to the captain of industry or the merchant prince.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BRAINERD

To confer its favor upon a chosen few would be a suicidal policy for any bank.

Bankers most desire a steady increase in customers—the development of new, strong, promising recruits to the ranks of prosperous depositors.

This does not mean that the person with a fanciful proposition will find an eager listener at his bank.

It does not imply that an honest, well-meaning man, going beyond his depth, will be urged on by his banker—perhaps helped financially.

A bank must have many customers. A banker is always on the lookout for promising timber.

Any upright, sincere, industrious person who is trying to make his way in the world will easily secure the kindly consideration of his banker.

GOD AND A GARDEN

FLOWERS bring tender memories, their culture stirs the imagination. They speak a varied language and no one has more beautifully expressed a tribute to flowers than Roe Fulkerson, writing in the Kiwanis' magazine.

With the idea of flower culture making a universal appeal in Brainerd, his exposition and philosophy of a flower garden will be read here with sympathetic understanding. Some of his ideas are inherent in the breasts of all real gardeners. Mr. Fulkerson says:

I have learned a lot in planting my flower garden; a lot about men and a little about God. Most of us are so busy we do not get much time to think about God. Most of us are so shaky in our faith that we push God aside or put him in the "Unanswered" file. A flower garden won't permit that. It impresses you that He is right there, now.

I take a bulb, dull brown and seemingly lifeless and bury it in the earth to see it spring into life and bring forth a thousand times its bulk in leaf and lovely flower. How can I ever again question the full truth of life beyond the grave or fail to laugh at a preacher who has to go to the Bible to prove it?

I study the grub and the beetle, the chrysalis and the butterfly. How can I doubt there is a Supreme Power over and above all, who plans and executes each of these great wonder works in the little creeping, flying and digging things?

I dig in the earth, I crumble it in my hands, I get close to it by actual contact, I am a bigger and a better man from getting away from theory into the realm of reality, from books and magazines like this, which are all one-man stuff into the land of all-man stuff. I am a better man for having planted and watered and dug and delved until my back aches and my tender palms were blistered from the spade and the trowel.

Like you, I have buried my dead. I, too, have watered with my bitter tears the graves of those I loved and left in the narrow house appointed for all living.

But as I plant the sleeping bulbs and the dormant seeds, as I laid in the ground and covered tenderly those dead looking tubers and roots, I realized that the warm breath of God's spring, the tender rains of His April, and the sweet influence of His great plan will bring them to life and make them spring triumphant from the graves in which I so tenderly plant them. So, too, will my loved ones, by His warm smile and His gentle plan be restored to me some Day. Some How, Some Place. I know not when or how, nor do I care. I know that He Whose plan restores the flowers each year, brings back their blooms and their green leaves, will not be less gentle or less tender to me. I know no denomination or creed, I care little for dogma or denomination and less for the battle between modernism and fundamentalism, but my garden chants, "There is a God, and all is well!"

Sounds like a sermon, doesn't it. I did not so mean it. I am only trying to tell you some of the fun I am having out of my flower garden and suggesting you shoot a little wad of dough in one as a fine gambling proposition. The Vicar of Pilling, who had a world-known rose garden, wrote:

"In the kiss of the sun there is pardon,
In the song of the bird there is mirth,
We are nearer God's heart in a garden,
Than anywhere on earth."

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

NEWSPAPER advertising offers the cheapest and best way to tell your store news to your community. The newspaper enters the family circle and is read by all.

Billboard advertising, for instance, is scanned by the motorist and passerby but its message fails unheeded in inclement weather and is never noticed by the man in the next block.

The true test of advertising is the number of the buying public you can reach and this pulling power you can best exert by using the newspaper advertisement as your medium of expression.

Circular letters serve a purpose in publicity work, but they are dependent for circulation on the size of your mailing list and of course postage is a considerable item of expense. Handbills have their niche in the scheme of things and their effectiveness depends largely on honest circulation.

The newspaper has an established set of readers, people who own their homes or are permanently located in a city. Your message in a newspaper is assured of circulation.

An advertisement should tell its story in direct language, the clearer and more lucid, the better. No fine writing is required, simple statements are preferred.

Advertising is of a cumulative nature, and advertised products continue to gain higher standings. To be effective in the highest degree, advertising must be constant. For the old adage, "out of sight, out of mind," holds as well in advertising as in affairs of the heart.

So intimately is advertising associated with certain products, that constant reiteration by a manufacturer of the merits of his article, causes the mind to subconsciously revert to such advertised matter.

SPRING CLEAN-UP

SPRING is here, the calendar says so, bluebirds and robins are chirping and Pa was down at the battery station and ordered his battery out. Ma has a new spring hat and the children are planning to go to the lake Sunday to see how the cottage survived the winter.

Ash piles serve as landmarks on many streets and alleys. Tin cans rest nearby. All this must soon be cleaned up and the backyard made as conspicuously clean and sanitary as the front yard.

Along with this cleanliness comes the movement to paint up, inside and out. Now is a good time to hire a painter or paper hanger in Brainerd, before the general rush is under way.

A clean, well painted town gives the air of thrift and enterprise which wins the approval of any visitor. And after cleaning up, take part in the flower movement and beautify your grounds.

SPRING is coming. The Dispatch took its storm window out of its front entrance and substituted a screen window. The Service News Agency next door also caught a glimpse of the same spring zephyr and removed its winter casement.

IN the old days the pedestrian had rights supreme, but in these days he is merely considered as the man who dodges automobiles.

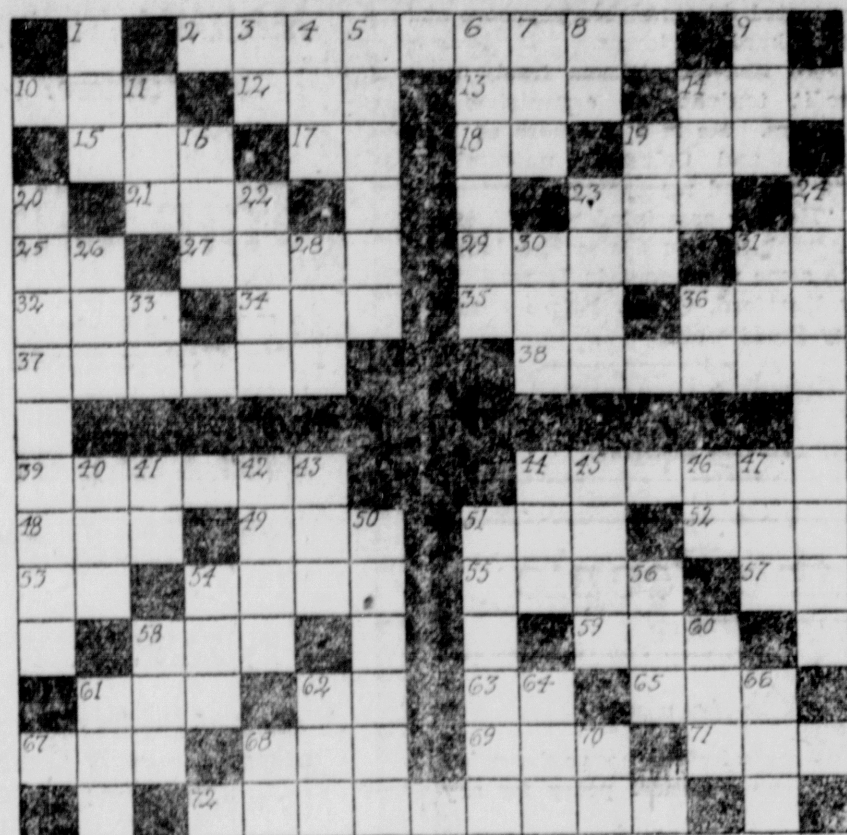

ED WEBB is back from a visit in Florida, Cuba, Bermuda and the Bahamas. But in spite of all these attractions, Ed says there's no place like Brainerd.

THERE is a convention of minds in active operation when Pa and Ma go to the milliner to pick out Ma's hat.

CYCLONES, fires, floods, murders—it's all in the day's news.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "Horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "Vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

GETTING TOO FAT?
TRY THIS—REDUCE

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be able to reduce steadily and easily and pleasantly, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. Start taking them today and get slender.

GOD AND A GARDEN

FLOWERS bring tender memories, their culture stirs the imagination. They speak a varied language and no one has more beautifully expressed a tribute to flowers than Roe Fulkerson, writing in the Kiwanis' magazine.

With the idea of flower culture making a universal appeal in Brainerd, his exposition and philosophy of a flower garden will be read here with sympathetic understanding. Some of his ideas are inherent in the breasts of all real gardeners. Mr. Fulkerson says:

I have learned a lot in planting my flower garden; a lot about men and a little about God. Most of us are so busy we do not get much time to think about God. Most of us are so shaky in our faith that we push God aside or put him in the "Unanswered" file. A flower garden won't permit that. It impresses you that He is right there, now.

I take a bulb, dull brown and seemingly lifeless and bury it in the earth to see it spring into life and bring forth a thousand times its bulk in leaf and lovely flower. How can I ever again question the full truth of life beyond the grave or fail to laugh at a preacher who has to go to the Bible to prove it?

I study the grub and the beetle, the chrysalis and the butterfly. How can I doubt there is a Supreme Power over and above all, who plans and executes each of these great wonder works in the little creeping, flying and digging things?

I dig in the earth, I crumble it in my hands, I get close to it by actual contact. I am a bigger and a better man from getting away from theory into the realm of reality, from books and magazines like this, which are all one-man stuff into the land of all-man stuff. I am a better man for having planted and watered and dug and delved until my back aches and my tender palms were blistered from the spade and the trowel.

Like you, I have buried my dead. I, too, have watered with my bitter tears the graves of those I loved and left in the narrow house appointed for all living.

But as I plant the sleeping bulbs and the dormant seeds, as I laid in the ground and covered tenderly those dead looking tubers and roots, I realized that the warm breath of God's spring, the tender rains of His April, and the sweet influence of His great plan will bring them to life and make them spring triumphant from the graves in which I so tenderly plant them. So, too, will my loved ones, by His warm smile and His gentle plan be restored to me some Day. Some How, Some Place. I know not when or how, nor do I care. I know that He Whose plan restores the flowers each year, brings back their blooms and their green leaves, will not be less gentle or less tender to me. I know no denomination or creed, I care little for dogma or denomination and less for the battle between modernism and fundamentalism, but my garden chants, "There is a God, and all is well!"

Sounds like a sermon, doesn't it. I did not so mean it. I am only trying to tell you some of the fun I am having out of my flower garden and suggesting you shoot a little wad of dough in one as a fine gambling proposition. The Vicar of Pilling, who had a world-known rose garden, wrote:

"In the kiss of the sun there is pardon,
In the song of the bird there is mirth,
We are nearer God's heart in a garden,
Than anywhere on earth."

SALVATION ARMY GIVING ASSISTANCE

IN COMPLETE CONTROL OF ONE SECTION OF TORNADO AREA

Colonel Wm. S. Barker, Divisional Commander of the Salvation Army at Minneapolis has received a message that the Salvation Army is in complete control of one section of the storm area, and is rendering valuable service in other areas. Army Cadets are in charge of the hospital at Murphysboro, and part of the large city hospital in Carbondale. Captain Bertha Bellikan and a party of Cadets have moved to West Frankfort for special work among the two thousand people who are being sustained by the Army there. Seventy tons of clothing have been received, sorted and distributed during the last three days, and at time of writing, the local Army Hall was jammed with clothing. Twenty tons of groceries have been distributed to Church Committees for re-distribution. Much of the assistance has been given to small isolated homes, overlooked by the initial relief expeditions.

The local Relief Committee in West Frankfort proposed to buy the entire stock of a large wholesale grocery warehouse, for distribution by the Salvation Army, which is operating five different buildings in the City. Special religious services are being arranged, and the entire ministerial force in the city has been invited to participate. It is reported that additional Army forces are arriving from St. Louis.

One feature of the relief work is the building of a permanent individual family index of sufferers in the area, which will be invaluable to the rehabilitation committee.

The Vice-President of the St. Louis Times has just telegraphed one thousand dollars to be used by the Army for bedding, food nursing and medical supplies.

It is reported that the local authorities especially favor the spiritual work the Army is doing at this time, considering such efforts as morale builders.

The Home and Foreign Missionary society will meet this evening in the church parlors at 8 o'clock and will be entertained by Mrs. W. T. Carlson and Mrs. Isacson. A large attendance is desired.

The Junior choir will meet in the church parlors Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to prepare for the Easter program.

"Daddy's Gone a-Hunting" Hailed as One of Season's Best

Another New York stage success has been made into a motion picture. It will be seen at the Lyceum theatre Sunday when Frank Borzage's first Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Daddy's Gone a-Hunting," a film version of the famous drama by Zoe Akins, opens for a 2 day run.

The plot centers in the search of an artist for inspiration and happiness. Julian the artist, is played by Percy Marmont, and he is said to bring to this part one of the finest characterizations he has ever given the screen.

The Arcadian orchestra will play at the Lyceum also Sunday.

Stop Night Coughing This Simple Way

People who have persistent, annoying coughing spells at night, and who through loss of valuable sleep are weakening their systems and laying themselves open to dangerous infections, can stop their distressing trouble promptly by a very simple treatment. Hundreds who have hardly been able to rest at all for coughing, have gotten their full night's sleep the very first time they tried it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. It is on sale at all food druggists. Ask for

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DIS- CHARGE AND ORDER OF NO- TICE THEREON

In the District Court of the United States, for the Fifth Division, District of Minnesota.

In the matter of Emil F. Hrdlicka, individually, and doing business as "Jenkins Garage," Bankrupt No. 2617, in Bankruptcy.

To the Honorable William A. Cant, Judge of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Minnesota:

Emil F. Hrdlicka, individually, and doing business as "Jenkins Garage," of the City of Brainerd, in the County of Crow Wing, and State of Minnesota, in said District, respectfully represents that on the 18th day of March, 1924, last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

WHEREFORE, he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankruptcy acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 16th day of March, A. D. 1925.

EMIL F. HRDLICKA, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice

District of Minnesota, ss:

On this 17th day of March, A. D. 1925, on reading the foregoing Petition for Discharge of the above named Bankrupt, It is ORDERED By the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1925, before the said court, at Duluth, in said district, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in The Brainerd Dispatch, a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the court, that the clerk shall send, by mail to all known creditors, copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness The Honorable William A. Cant, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof, at Duluth, in said district, on the 17th day of March, A. D. 1925.

Such Knowledge Built Up Her Children's Health

DO you realize why the span of human life is growing longer? Knowledge—more accurate knowledge of health laws—the importance of nutritive elements in our foods.

As an example, the modern, intelligent mother has learned from health experts that the food element, Dextrose, is essential to supply warmth to the blood and energy to the body. She has learned from nutrition experts that Karo contains a large amount of Dextrose.

Thus she understands why Karo is such an important food for growing children. There are three kinds of Karo—Blue, Red and Orange Labels—all are delicious in flavor and equally rich in nutrition.

"My dear - simply perfect!"

Yes, perfect every time and it keeps fresh for days... for now I use only the new Kitchen-tested Cake Flour!

Don't say you cannot make a cake. It is easy. If you tried and failed—probably your flour was to blame. It takes a special kind of fine, plump wheat—with a tender, pliable gluten—to make good cake flour.

But even the best flour may play tricks—unless it is Kitchen-tested. That is why in our big kitchens we test every single batch of the new Gold Medal Cake Flour. That is why—every time—you can make such remarkably good cake.

My staff and I bake cakes continuously. From every batch of Gold Medal Cake Flour made. Every cake we make must pass 3 tests. It must be perfect—light, tender, delicious. Every cake must be as good as the one before. Every cake must keep its original freshness 3 whole days.

This new cake flour, madam, Kitchen-tested—to give you a perfect cake every time—one that stays fresh 3 whole days. Try it for your own delight. Just phone your grocer for a package now.

SALVATION ARMY GIVING ASSISTANCE

IN COMPLETE CONTROL OF ONE SECTION OF TORNADO AREA

Colonel Wm. S. Barker, Divisional Commander of the Salvation Army at Minneapolis has received a message that the Salvation Army is in complete control of one section of the storm area, and is rendering valuable service in other areas. Army Cadets are in charge of the hospital at Murphysboro, and part of the large city hospital in Carbondale. Captain Bertha Bellikan and a party of Cadets have moved to West Frankfort for special work among the two thousand people who are being sustained by the Army there. Seventy tons of clothing have been received, sorted and distributed during the last three days, and at time of writing, the local Army Hall was jammed with clothing. Twenty tons of groceries have been distributed to Church Committees for re-distribution. Much of the assistance has been given to small isolated homes, overlooked by the initial relief expeditions.

The local Relief Committee in West Frankfort proposed to buy the entire stock of a large wholesale grocery warehouse, for distribution by the Salvation Army, which is operating five different buildings in the City. Special religious services are being arranged, and the entire ministerial force in the city has been invited to participate. It is reported that additional Army forces are arriving from St. Louis.

One feature of the relief work is the building of a permanent individual family index of sufferers in the area, which will be invaluable to the rehabilitation committee.

The Vice-President of the St. Louis Times has just telegraphed one thousand dollars to be used by the Army for bedding, food nursing and medical supplies.

It is reported that the local authorities especially favor the spiritual work the Army is doing at this time, considering such efforts as morale builders.

"Daddy's Gone a-Hunting" Hailed as One of Season's Best

Another New York stage success has been made into a motion picture. It will be seen at the Lyceum theatre Sunday when Frank Borzage's first Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Daddy's Gone a-Hunting," a film version of the famous drama by Zoe Akins, opens for a 2 day run.

The plot centers in the search of an artist for inspiration and happiness. Julian the artist, is played by Percy Marmont, and he is said to bring to this part one of the finest characterizations he has ever given the screen.

The Arcadian orchestra will play at the Lyceum also Sunday.

Stop Night Coughing This Simple Way

People who have persistent, annoying coughing spells at night, and who through loss of valuable sleep are weakening their systems and laying themselves open to dangerous infections, can stop their distressing trouble promptly by a very simple treatment. Hundreds who have hardly been able to rest at all for coughing, have gotten their full night's sleep the very first time they tried it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. It is on sale at all good druggists. Ask for

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE AND ORDER OF NOTICE

In the District Court of the United States, for the Fifth Division, District of Minnesota.

In the matter of Emil F. Hrdlicka, individually, and doing business as "Jenkins Garage," Bankrupt No. 2617, in Bankruptcy.

To the Honorable William A. Cant, Judge of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Minnesota:

Emil F. Hrdlicka, individually, and doing business as "Jenkins Garage," of the City of Brainerd, in the County of Crow Wing, and State of Minnesota, in said District, respectfully represents that on the 18th day of March, 1924, last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the act of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said act and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

WHEREFORE, he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said bankruptcy act, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 16th day of March, A. D. 1925.

EMIL F. HRDLICKA, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice

District of Minnesota, ss:

On this 17th day of March, A. D. 1925, on reading the foregoing Petition for Discharge of the above named Bankrupt, it is—

ORDERED By the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1925, before the said court, at Duluth, in said district, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in The Brainerd Dispatch, a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the court, that the clerk shall send, by mail to all known creditors, copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness The Honorable William A. Cant, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof, at Duluth, in said district, on the 17th day of March, A. D. 1925.

A Piece of Bric-a-Brac

By MARGUERITE B. ALLAN

(© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

SHE settled herself back in the carriage as the train pulled out of the station, and she had a last glimpse of her husband waving his hand. . . . Thank goodness, Edward had consented to her going to New York at last, even if it were only for three weeks. She felt that she could not have tolerated the humdrum monotony of life in that suburban village any longer. Some women couldn't stand monotony. And marriage was monotonous. Strange that once she had thought a home and husband the most desirable things on earth, and now—not that Edward wasn't good. She looked down at her wedding ring and slowly, very slowly, removed it from her finger and slipped it into her handbag. She was going to forget that she was Mrs. Edward Williamson, and use her old name—Amy Cutter—again.

In New York she found a room at a second-rate hotel whose garishness seemed to her the height of luxury. She liked the bustle and noise, the red plush-covered chairs, the gilt carving in the dining room. When she went to bed at night she left the electric light burning for a long time, taking a childish pleasure in what Edward would have considered wastefulness.

The following evening there was a knock at her door and a tall red-haired woman burst in. She was wearing a low-cut blue satin evening frock. Rows of huge pearls swung from her bare throat. "I say—you look me up? I've rung for the maid but no one answers."

Amy Edwards complied, her fingers trembling with excitement. Here was a radiant creature from another world who was disposed to be friendly. "I'm a bit early for my engagement," went on the woman. "May I sit down and smoke a cigarette with you? Thank you." She jerked her shoulders and moved away.

"I'm . . . I'm afraid I've smoked all my cigarettes," said Amy pretending to hunt for the box.

"That's all right. Come on into my room—I've plenty. My name is Flo Wright. Have the room next to yours."

She led the way, throwing a question to Amy over her shoulder: "You in the profession too, dearie?"

Amy, not understanding, murmured that she was doing nothing at present.

"Same here," said Miss Wright. She settled herself in a chair and lit a cigarette. Her room was in great disorder—dresses spread over the bed, and dirty satin slippers strewn about the floor. On the dressing table was a formidable array of jars of rouge and powder, their tops missing. "I hope to goodness something will turn up presently. I want to play tragedy—I just know I could make a hit in the legitimate."

An actress then! Amy looked at the woman with the flaming bobbed hair and crimsoned lips. She seemed a fascinating creature. How Amy envied her. She longed to question her about her life, but just then the telephone bell rang and Miss Wright shouted into the receiver, "All right—tell him I'll be down in a minute."

She snatched up a cloak. "Come in and breakfast with me tomorrow. I've got to rush now."

So their friendship began. Miss Wright poured into Amy's attentive ears the tales of conquests past and present; the descriptions of supper parties and dances at which it appeared she was in great demand, and Amy's heart was torn with the desire to live as she did in this atmosphere of pleasure, where there were no responsibilities, no worries, no permanent husband to cook and slave for. At last she decided to ask her new friend to try and get her a job on the stage, too—she could sing and dance a little. . . .

To her surprise Miss Wright turned upon her in a fury. "What do you want to butt in for—are you there enough of us struggling as it is?"

Amy flushed, and Miss Wright's tone softened as she asked, "Are you hard up, too?"

"No. . . . I'm married. . . . I don't need to work, only—I'm sick of my quiet life; I want excitement."

"You're married?" Miss Wright paused in the act of applying a decayed powder puff to her cheeks. "Then you're a little fool. I want a home of my own—a man to love me. Listen—the only man who ever really loved me was a fellow in a suburban town where I once visited an aunt of mine. That was in Laurelville, nine years ago. But I turned him down because I wanted to 'see life,' as they call it. See life!—believe me, I've seen all I wanted of it. . . . Do you know that I made up my mind this morning I was going back to that man. I'll marry him if he still cares for me. I wrote to him—here is the letter. . . . His name was Edward Williamson, and he was a good man, Amy, a good man. . . . I might have been happy if I hadn't been such a fool. All I am now is a piece of bric-a-brac."

Amy reached for the letter in her friend's hand and tore it quickly into fragments. "You can't marry him, Flo—he is mine. Edward Williamson is my husband." Her voice trembled, and while the other woman stared dully, she opened her handbag and slipped her wedding ring once more on her finger caressing it.

And for some reason or other her eyes filled with tears.

DETROIT HAS BIG PROBLEM IN HER CAR TRAFFIC

Detroit, March 25.—The mother city of the automobile industry is finding it necessary to educate her motorists in traffic regulations. And it's costing them $500,000 a year for her to act as teacher.

The traffic situation has become so acute that "drastic measures are necessary to protect both pedestrian and motorist. The 300,000 machines, augmented by 500 dare-devil "jitneys," attempting to make up for a much needed rapid transit service, all try to concentrate during business hours in an area less than a half mile square. Consequently a pedestrian has become to be looked upon as fair game for any driver.

To combat the growing seriousness of the situation, a bureau of traffic violations was established last August. This bureau not only recommends the new rules for parking and driving, but also sees to their enforcement.

The cost of operating the bureau amounts to $35,000 a month at present. The police are now nabbing 25,000 violators a month and fines collected totaled close to $250,000 during the past six months. That shows a small profit to the city.

The police running the bureau are all business. When they began, 300 policemen averaged 1,100 hours a month in court getting only $6,750. Last month, a light one, 12 officers came into court and remained 45 hours, but gathered in $22,500 in fines. The victims spent but five minutes apiece, whereas before they had to stick around three and a half hours.

The secret is an arrangement whereby those who desire may plead guilty and pay their fine without seeing the judge.

Even judges have the spirit of speed. Russell Wherritt was hailed in for not observing a "stop" street. "Five dollars," quoted the judge, when John pleaded guilty.

"I'll pay the fine, but I want to explain."

"This court is busy. You pleaded guilty. Ten dollars is your charge now."

"I'll pay that, but I did want to explain."

"Twenty-five dollars," said the judge.

Russell departed, explaining volubly to his wife outside.

And Sergeant Burns, in charge of the bureau, refuses to estimate how long it will take to educate them all. The best result getter to date, he thinks, are the automatic "stop" and "go" towers.

REWARD MONEY GAVE CHILDREN FREE EDUCATION

New York, March 24.—A long forgotten chapter in international relationship has been brought to light by the Rev. Earl R. Bull, formerly of Dayton, O., now a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal church in the Loo Choo Islands of Japan. Dr. Bull, in itinerating through his district, found that the children of the villages of Anjo and Kisekimura on the island of Tanegashima, were receiving free education far superior to that of the boys and girls in surrounding communities. His queries brought to light this story:

Fifty years ago, the American ship "Cashmere" was wrecked on the coral rocks off the island of Tanegashima. Twelve American sailors and passengers put out in little boats and finally were thrown up on the coast of the island. At last a Japanese fisherman heard their cries, and went out to aid them. One boat load he led to the village of Anjo, where they were cared for by the villagers. The other boat load were cared for in Kisekimura. They were given clothes and food until an American vessel picked them up.

It was years afterwards that the American Congress voted to give $5,000 to reward the villagers of the island for their kind deed. It was decided to give a sum to the first fisherman who aided the shipwrecked Americans and then to divide the remainder between two villages. The money was invested in banks in Kagoshima and for forty-five years the interest on this sum has been used to educate the boys and girls.

Dr. Bull says that once a year the children gather together and celebrate the day upon which their fathers rescued the survivors of the "Cashmere wreck." It is their memorial day.

Lively's stock of Ford parts is complete in every detail. Open day and night. 9817

Detroit, March 25.—The mother city of the automobile industry is finding it necessary to educate her motorists in traffic regulations. And it's costing them $500,000 a year for her to act as teacher.

The traffic situation has become so acute that drastic measures are necessary to protect both pedestrian and motorist. The 300,000 machines, augmented by 500 dare-devil "jitneys," attempting to make up for a much needed rapid transit service, all try to concentrate during business hours in an area less than a half mile square. Consequently a pedestrian has become to be looked upon as fair game for any driver.

To combat the growing seriousness of the situation, a bureau of traffic violations was established last August. This bureau not only recommends the new rules for parking and driving, but also sees to their enforcement.

The cost of operating the bureau amounts to $35,000 a month at present. The police are now nabbing 25,000 violators a month and fines collected totaled close to $250,000 during the past six months. That shows a small profit to the city.

The police running the bureau are all business. When they began, 300 policemen averaged 1,100 hours a month in court getting only $6,750. Last month, a light one, 12 officers came into court and remained 45 hours, but gathered in $22,500 in fines. The victims spent but five minutes apiece, whereas before they had to stick around three and a half hours.

The secret is an arrangement whereby those who desire may plead guilty and pay their fine without seeing the judge.

Even judges have the spirit of speed. Russell Wherritt was hailed in for not observing a "stop" street.

"Five dollars," quoted the judge, when John pleaded guilty.

"I'll pay the fine, but I want to explain."

"This court is busy. You pleaded guilty. Ten dollars is your charge now."

"I'll pay that, but I did want to explain."

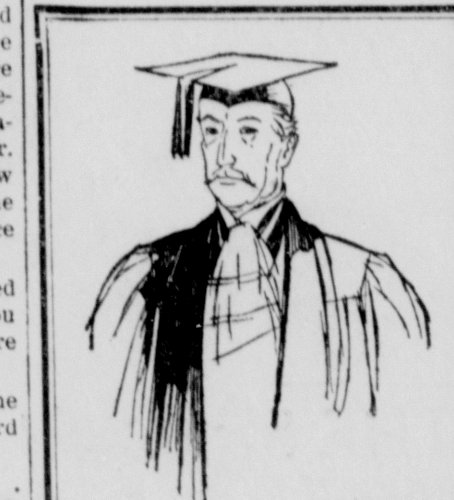

"Twenty-five dollars," said the judge.

Russell departed, explaining volubly to his wife outside.

And Sergeant Burns, in charge of the bureau, refuses to estimate how long it will take to educate them all. The best result getter to date, he thinks, are the automatic "stop" and "go" towers.

REWARD MONEY
GAVE CHILDREN
FREE EDUCATION

New York, March 24.—A long forgotten chapter in international relationship has been brought to light by the Rev. Earl R. Bull, formerly of Dayton, O., now a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal church in the Loo Choo Islands of Japan. Dr. Bull, in itinerating through his district, found that the children of the villages of Anjo and Kisekimura on the island of Tanegashima, were receiving free education far superior to that of the boys and girls in surrounding communities. His queries brought to light this story:

Fifty years ago, the American ship "Cashmere" was wrecked on the coral rocks off the island of Tanegashima. Twelve American sailors and passengers put out in little boats and finally were thrown up on the coast of the island. At last a Japanese fisherman heard their cries, and went out to aid them. One boat load he led to the village of Anjo, where they were cared for by the villagers. The other boat load were cared for in Kisekimura. They were given clothes and food until an American vessel picked them up.

It was years afterwards that the American Congress voted to give $5,000 to reward the villagers of the island for their kind deed. It was decided to give a sum to the first fisherman who aided the shipwrecked Americans and then to divide the remainder between two villages. The money was invested in banks in Kagoshima and for forty-five years the interest on this sum has been used to educate the boys and girls.

Dr. Bull says that once a year the children gather together and celebrate the day upon which their fathers rescued the survivors of the "Cashmere wreck." It is their memorial day.

ALFALFA GAINS IN FAVOR HERE

"King of All Hay Crops" Given Increased Acreage in Crow Wing County

5,000 ACRES TO BE PLANTED

County Agent Roth Believes It Will Revolutionize Farming in This County

Alfalfa, "The King of all hay crops" is gaining rapidly in favor among Crow Wing county farmers, who have increased the acreage of this crop from less than 40 acres four years ago, to what is estimated to be at least 5,000 acres with what is planted this season.

Crow Wing county farmers fully realize the value of alfalfa for the feeding of dairy herds, says County Agent E. G. Roth, and the fact that it can be grown on the lightest soils, is making it a universal favorite. Mr. Roth has the following to say concerning alfalfa:

"I believe that alfalfa is the finest crop that can be grown in Crow Wing county, and that inside of five years it will revolutionize the methods of farming in this county.

"Four years ago, less than 40 acres of alfalfa were planted in this county. This has increased to over 2,000 acres in 1924, and it is believed that this will be doubled or trebled during 1925, so great is the interest manifested in the crop.

"Alfalfa is the king of all hay crops. It is equivalent in food value to bran, and will yield from two to six tons per acre. It will stand our dry weather better than any crop that has been grown.

"It grows from the lightest to the heaviest soil, and if properly taken care of will give good crop yields on the same field for as many years as the farmer desires.

"When plowed under, alfalfa will leave the land in better shape than before it was planted, and will leave the soil in the very best possible condition for other crops."

TALL CEDARS DANCING PARTY

Range Brothers to Entertain Brainerd Brethren at Crosby Armory

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 3

R. Leslie Wahl is Chairman of the Range Committee in Charge of Dance

Crosby-Ironton members of Lake Region Forest No. 58, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, are making elaborate preparations to entertain their Brainerd brethren at a big dancing party, to be held in the Crosby armory on Friday evening, April 3rd.

R. Leslie Wahl, chairman of the range committee in charge of the dance, states that it will be the biggest social event staged in the county during the past year. Nothing will be spared to make it an outstanding success. Hedstrom's big band is to furnish the music.

All Brainerd Masons, whether they belong to the Tall Cedars or not, and all members of the Eastern Star, are given a special invitation to attend this dancing party. Range Masons and Eastern Stars have also been invited, so that the event will give the members of these Masonic bodies an excellent opportunity to get acquainted and to form new fraternal friendships.

As a special courtesy, and showing to what extent the Range committee is working for the success of this function, it is announced that special police have been engaged to watch all automobiles parked at the armory on that evening. No one need to feel the least hesitancy about parking his car under these arrangements.

There will be something doing from the first dance number until the Home Sweet Home waltz, says Mr. Wahl. Novel stunts, entirely original and highly entertaining, will be staged between dances, and refreshments will be served, including goulash sandwiches, coffee, wafers and ice cream. Cedar sap will also be on tap during the evening.

All eligible to attend this dancing party are urged to keep the event in mind, and to make no other plans for Friday evening, April 3rd.

WORKERS TO MEET TODAY

Chamber Anticipates a Great Tourist Business in District This Season

The matter of increasing the membership in the Chamber of Commerce was discussed at length at the regular meeting of that organization, held Wednesday evening.

It was pointed out that the membership is too small for the number of people in the city who should belong to the Chamber, and it was decided that committees be appointed for each block to canvas the city in an effort to bring the membership up to what it should be. These workers are to meet today and make definite plans for their campaign, and will probably start their work before the end of the week.

Upon motion duly carried the Chamber of Commerce is to carry an advertisement in the American Camping and Campsite Manual, the official publication for tourists, which has a very wide circulation.

The publicity committee made a complete report, pointing out the favorable advertising that has been given Brainerd, or that will come to this city during the season. "Brainerd Night on the Radio" was cited, in which the city's broadcasting program recently received a half-column mention in the Radio News, published monthly by WCCO. Letters are still being received complimentary to his program.

The Elks convention to be held in Brainerd on August 20, 21 and 22, bids fair to be the largest convention ever held in the city, and intense interest is being shown in every one of the 14 lodges of the state, as well as throughout the Northwest.

The Northern Minnesota Medical society's convention follows on the heels of the Elks convocation, and was secured through the efforts of local physicians. It is planned to make this gathering the largest of its kind in the history of the society. It will draw prominent medical men from outside the state.

Through the efforts of Brainerd people, the city and county has been brought to a realization of the effectiveness of beautifying city and country with flowers. The Garden Flower society is making rapid progress in his work, and keen interest is being shown. It is expected that this effort alone will do much toward gaining such favorable publicity for the city, especially from tourists and other visitors here this summer.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning to advertise the playground facilities of the Brainerd lake region more extensively than ever this season, and is looking forward to the greatest summer tourist influx that his territory has ever known.

Social Hour to Follow, Seven Ladies to Act as Hostesses

The Brainerd Musical club will hold its annual business and social meeting at the Chamber of Commerce next Saturday at 2 o'clock, when business and pleasure will meet, and reports on money spent and money gained mingle with the glow of candles and the tinkle of silver and china. The reports will be brief and interesting, and the social hour an opportunity to meet those whom one misses at the regular meetings.

The afternoon is in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. R. A. Beise, Mrs. C. L. Burnett, Mrs. R. T. Campbell, Mrs. A. J. Hayes, Mrs. W. A. Spencer, Mrs. E. O. Webb and Mrs. Carl Zapffe.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to friends and neighbors who so kindly gave aid and sympathy during our recent sad bereavement, and for the beautiful floral offerings, and Mrs. L. Hohman, Lorraine Morrison, and Imgrund Brothers.

MRS. O. M. OLSON, and Sons, Mr. and MRS. THEO. SATTER.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend to our many friends and relatives and American Legion our heartfelt thanks for their kindness and sympathy and beautiful floral offerings, extended us during our hour of sorrow.

ATHLETICS BUILDING UP U. S. MANHOOD

By HENRY L. FARRELL,
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 26.—Meyer Prinstein, one of America's greatest athletes, who won four Olympic championships for the United States, died recently after a short illness. At the age of 45 he was comparatively in his prime, and there were suggestions that he had been made the victim of athletics, that he had an athletic heart and the kindred ails that some authorities blame upon too much youthful exertion.

Prinstein was famed for the victories that he scored with the American Olympic teams in 1900, 1904 and 1906. He won the hop, step and jump in 1900, the broad jump and the hop-step in 1904 and the broad jump in 1906. He was never heralded though for his greatest victory, that victory over physical inefficiency which threatened him with the life of an invalid when he was a mere youngster.

Lawson Robertson, track coach at the University of Pennsylvania, head coach of the 1924 American Olympic team and a teammate of Prinstein's on the American Olympic teams in 1904 and 1906, knows the story of his greatest achievement.

"Prinstein was only 45 years of age," Robertson says, "and on the normal scale he should have enjoyed many more years, but if he had not taken up athletics it is quite possible that he would have died years ago.

"When he first entered Syracuse University he was an invalid. His lungs were weak, his heart not so good and he generally was undeveloped. But instead of resigning himself to an early death and sitting down and waiting for it he decided to exercise.

"He began working in the gymnasium with simple calisthenics. He went about the reconstruction of his physical self in a very careful manner. He did not go at it too rapidly.

"Gradually he developed, and as he did, he made his exercises a little more strenuous. Then he began running and jumping and his body thrived on athletics.

"Prinstein entered Syracuse an invalid, and before he was graduated he was one of the best broad jumpers America had or has had since. His United States record stood until a few years ago, when it was broken by Sol Butler."

SKUNKS NOSE OUT GRAYBEARDS

DEFEAT THEM IN KITTENBALL 11 TO 10 LAST NIGHT

In the first scheduled kittenball game of the year, the Skunks nosed out the Graybeards last night, 11-10, at the Main street grounds. Loose playing on both sides let runs creep in, neither side having a big lead at any time during the contest.

The last inning was a typical Casey-at-the-bat situation. The Skunks were leading 11-9 when the Graybeards went to bat for the last time. The heavy artillery started working, one run was pushed over the plate, and the tying and winning runs were on third and second. The Treglawny, who had already punched out a triple, double and single, fanned the air for the last out.

The batteries were for the Graybeards, Dillan and Bollens, for the Skunks, Fitzharris and Bouma.

Tonight the Indians and Skunks play at the Main street grounds. The Hornets and Graybeards play Saturday afternoon.

The Y. M. C. A. is organizing a kittenball team, and is ready to take on all comers. Call the Y. M. C. A. for games.

The first baseball practice for the Y. M. C. A. baseball team, outdoor baseball, will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

American League To Give Mrs. Coolidge Fancy 'Annie Oakley'

Chicago, March 26.—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, first lady of the land, also will be the first fan of the land this coming season if a pass means anything. The wife of the president happens to be one of the most ardent feminine baseball rooters the White House ever has had for an occupant, and B. B. Johnson, president of the American league, will soon present to her, with the league's compliments, a most elaborate pass.

The pass will be in the form of the now popular envelope purse of pin seal mounted with a gold monogram, "G. G. C." The purse will contain a leather-bound schedule for the 1925 season, a container for small change, and various other 1925 equipment.

Pres. Coolidge's pass will be of the usual folder variety with a monogram mounting. Vice President Dawes will receive a similar folder, entitling him to walk into any American league park without the necessity of visiting the ticket seller.

IZAIAK WALTON LEAGUE DINNER

Culminates Successful Membership Campaign, Reaching Goal of 100

SERVED AT CHAMBER TONIGHT

Brainerd Municipal Band to Give Outdoor Concert Before Program And During Dinner

The Brainerd chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America will culminate its membership campaign, and celebrate the reaching of the goal of 100 members, by staging a big organization banquet this Thursday evening at 6:15 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee that has been working on the membership campaign has experienced little difficulty in interesting local people in the League, and all of the 100 members seem very enthusiastic about the prospects of the Brainerd chapter, and are anxious that it shall receive a good start at tonight's banquet.

The Brainerd Municipal band will play in front of the Iron Exchange building at 6 o'clock this evening, and will render several selections during the banquet.

Following the banquet the organization meeting will be held, officers elected and other necessary business transacted. The charter has been received and all of the members that have been secured will sign it tonight, after which the charter membership privilege will be closed.

Several speakers from state headquarters in St. Paul have been secured to address the meeting. They include Mel Nyman, Dr. Morris and Dean Rundlett, who were here some time ago, have promised to be on hand, and to bring messages of vital interest to the new organization.

The Brainerd chapter has a definite program of worthwhile activities in its field outlined, and expects to do a great deal of good work during the coming season.

NEURITIS SUPREME TEST FOR BURMA-VITA

This is written with a full knowledge that chronic neuritis is the "toughest proposition" of them all. Chronic neuritis furnishes the supreme test for Burma-Vita. Rub the painful spot gently with lots of Burma-Vita. Apply large bath towel wrung out of hot water. Repeat several times. The trouble lies in very deep—nothing less powerful or penetrating than Burma-Vita would reach the spot. Neuritis furnishes the supreme test—Burma-Vita accepts the challenge. Every druggist in Brainerd has Burma-Vita at 50c.

You Can Quickly Limber Up Sore Stiff, Swollen Joints

Even chronic rheumatic swellings in knee, foot, ankles, arch, hips, elbow, shoulder or finger joints yield to the mighty powerful influence of JOINT-EASE.

It's here, right in town and every live druggist has it. It's a low price remedy, to be sure, but that doesn't stop it from taking the kinks, lameness or torture out of your troubled joints.

Joint-Ease is the name, so called because it is compounded solely for the purpose of relieving all joint ailments.

Just rub it on the tormented, lame joints and in just a few seconds it will penetrate through skin and flesh straight down to the ligaments and tendons of the joints—right where the agony starts. Then blessed comfort comes quickly.

It absorbs instantly and is so clean that you can rub it on often and get thereby results much more quickly, when the joint is inflamed and the agony intense.

Being such a powerful counter-irritant, it cannot help bringing speedy and helpful results in congestion, sore throat, chest colds, lumbago and neuralgia much quicker than almost any remedy you can buy.

But you must remember that it is for joint afflictions that Joint-Ease is mostly dispensed, and its helpfulness will astonish you after all ordinary liniments and other treatments have failed. Johnson's Pharmacy and Economy Drug Co. sell lots of it.

FAMOUS FORTS IN U. S. HISTORY

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

It Kept the Northwest Under Our Flag

One February day in 1779 the British flag was hauled down from above Fort Sackville on the Wabash river in Indiana. George Rogers Clark had won the old Northwest for the United States. One August day in 1813, an army advancing under the English banner against Fort Stephenson on the Sandusky river in Ohio reeled back in defeat before the withering fire of its garrison of Kentucky riflemen. George Croghan, a nephew of George Rogers Clark, had saved the old Northwest for the United States.

Fort Stephenson barely deserves the name of fort at all. It was only a stockade built at the head of navigation on the Sandusky river, but it was important because it commanded the approach to two important bases of supplies for Harrison's army in the War of 1812.

When General Proctor with 600 British regulars, accompanied by 3,000 Indians under Tecumseh, appeared in northern Ohio, Gen. William Henry Harrison ordered Capt. George Croghan to evacuate this post. But Croghan believed that with his force of 100 men he could hold it against Proctor, and his confidence was shared by his six youthful subalterns, none of them more than twenty-one years of age. Harrison reluctantly gave his permission for the attempt to be made and Croghan set to work to strengthen the old fort as much as possible.

He had only one piece of artillery, a little six-pounder, which the soldier affectionately called "Old Bess," and when Proctor appeared before the fort with a force of 1,200 Indians and regulars and some heavy artillery, a successful defense seemed hopeless. But Croghan refused Proctor's summons to surrender and was not even frightened at the Briton's threat that he might not be able to control his Indians if he had to storm the fort.

After bombarding the fort all night Proctor sent a storming party of 300 men against the walls and although Croghan's men met the attackers with a deadly rifle fire, they came on bravely. Just as they sprang into the ditch surrounding the fort, a masked porthole was thrown open in one of the blockhouses and "Old Bess" poured out a veritable blast of death upon the British. That proved the deciding stroke in the battle. Proctor retreated precipitately. The American supply depots were saved, Ohio was spared the horrors of an invasion by the Indians and historians generally agree that the successful defense of Fort Stephenson saved the Northwest.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

ALL STAR FACULTY TEAM TO MEET WINNERS OF INTER-CLASS TOURNAMENT

In addition to the already scheduled game between the Spohomore girls and a picked team from the rest of the school, an all star Faculty team has been chosen to meet the winners of the Interclass Tournament. This is not advertised as a serious affair, and the faculty firmly expect to amuse the public, for none of them are Paavo Nurmi, and few of them are experts on the floor. In fact some of them have never played a game before, but for the sake of the Brainionian, they are willing to perform. For pain—quick

The worst pains people suffer can be relieved at once. Rheumatic pain, soreness, backache, cold in chest, etc. Rub the sore spot with red pepper. Nothing else supplies such concentrated, such penetrating heat. And heat that doesn't hurt.

You feel it instantly. In three minutes that heat penetrates to the depths. Circulation starts, congestion is relieved. The pain and the soreness depart.

People used to use plasters, mustard and liniment. But modern science has found a better way, a quicker, more efficient way, a way without objections.

Don't suffer pains which Red Pepper Rub relieves almost at once. Don't let cold in the chest go neglected. Have this rub at hand—get it now. The time will come when its quick relief will mean much to someone in your home.

The Brainerd chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America will culminate its membership campaign, and celebrate the reaching of the goal of 100 members, by staging a big organization banquet this Thursday evening at 6:15 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee that has been working on the membership campaign has experienced little difficulty in interesting local people in the League, and all of the 100 members seem very enthusiastic about the prospects of the Brainerd chapter, and are anxious that it shall receive a good start at tonight's banquet.

The Brainerd Municipal band will play in front of the Iron Exchange building at 6 o'clock this evening, and will render several selections during the banquet.

Following the banquet the organization meeting will be held, officers elected and other necessary business transacted. The charter has been received and all of the members that have been secured will sign it tonight, after which the charter membership privilege will be closed.

Several speakers from state headquarters in St. Paul have been secured to address the meeting. They include Mel Nyman, Dr. Morris and Dean Rundlett, who were here some time ago, have promised to be on hand, and to bring messages of vital interest to the new organization.

The Brainerd chapter has a definite program of worthwhile activities in its field outlined, and expects to do a great deal of good work during the coming season.

NEURITIS SUPREME TEST FOR BURMA-VITA

This is written with a full knowledge that chronic neuritis is the "toughest proposition" of them all. Chronic neuritis furnishes the supreme test for Burma-Vita. Rub the painful spot gently with lots of Burma-Vita. Apply large bath towel wrung out of hot water. Repeat several times. The trouble lies in very deep—nothing less powerful or penetrating than Burma-Vita would reach the spot. Neuritis furnishes the supreme test—Burma-Vita accepts the challenge. Every druggist in Brainerd has Burma-Vita at 50c.

You Can Quickly Limber Up Sore Stiff, Swollen Joints

Even chronic rheumatic swellings in knee, foot, ankles, arch, hips, elbow, shoulder or finger joints yield to the mighty powerful influence of JOINT-EASE.

It's here, right in town and every live druggist has it.

It's a low price remedy, to be sure, but that doesn't stop it from taking the kinks, lameness or torture out of your troubled joints.

Joint-Ease is the name, so called because it is compounded solely for the purpose of relieving all joint ailments.

Just rub it on the tormented, lame joints and in just a few seconds it will penetrate through skin and flesh

It Kept the Northwest Under Our Flag

One February day in 1779 the British flag was hauled down from above Fort Sackville on the Wabash river in Indiana. George Rogers Clark had won the old Northwest for the United States. One August day in 1813, an army advancing under the English banner against Fort Stephenson on the Sandusky river in Ohio reeled back in defeat before the withering fire of its garrison of Kentucky riflemen. George Croghan, a nephew of George Rogers Clark, had saved the old Northwest for the United States.

Fort Stephenson barely deserves the name of fort at all. It was only a stockade built at the head of navigation on the Sandusky river, but it was important because it commanded the approach to two important bases of supplies for Harrison's army in the War of 1812.

When General Proctor with 600 British regulars, accompanied by 3,000 Indians under Tecumseh, appeared in northern Ohio, Gen. William Henry Harrison ordered Capt. George Croghan to evacuate this post. But Croghan believed that with his force of 100 men he could hold it against Proctor, and his confidence was shared by his six youthful subalterns, none of them more than twenty-one years of age. Harrison reluctantly gave his permission for the attempt to be made and Croghan set to work to strengthen the old fort as much as possible.

He had only one piece of artillery, a little six-pounder, which the soldier affectionately called "Old Bess," and when Proctor appeared before the fort with a force of 1,200 Indians and regulars and some heavy artillery, a successful defense seemed hopeless. But Croghan refused Proctor's summons to surrender and was not even frightened at the Briton's threat that he might not be able to control his Indians if he had to storm the fort.

After bombarding the fort all night Proctor sent a storming party of 300 men against the walls and although Croghan's men met the attackers with a deadly rifle fire, they came on bravely. Just as they sprang into the ditch surrounding the fort, a masked port-hole was thrown open in one of the blockhouses and "Old Bess" poured out a veritable blast of death upon the British. That proved the deciding stroke in the battle. Proctor retreated precipitately. The American supply depots were saved, Ohio was spared the horrors of an invasion by the Indians and historians generally agree that the successful defense of Fort Stephenson saved the Northwest.

Copper in Cosmetics

Women of an earlier age who applied cosmetics to their faces not only put on "war paint," but literally buckled on armor. Copper was an essential ingredient of the cosmetics of those days. Long before copper as a metal was known crude copper was used as an ingredient of the cosmetics with which the women painted their faces.—Detroit News.

TRY SULPHUR ON

AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.
